

Larry Nguyen and Kyle Grozelle present:
TEE Care and Maintenance
To Lower Total Cost Of Ownership

Sponsored by: Summit Imaging

Wednesday, February 14, 2018, 2:00pm ET

PRESENTERS: Larry Nguyen and Kyle Grozelle

Larry Nguyen is CEO and CTO of Summit Imaging.

Kyle Grozelle is Manager of Global Education and Training at Summit Imaging. He manages Summit's robust training program that offers personalized, interactive courses on ultrasound systems to healthcare organizations across the country.

WEBINAR AGENDA: This 60-minute webinar will feature Larry Nguyen, CEO and CTO of Summit Imaging and Kyle Grozelle, Training Manager of Summit Imaging. Join Larry and Kyle as they disassemble a TEE ultrasound transducer and identify the major components to explain the vulnerabilities of failure from improper care. Attendees will gain insight to the variations and effectiveness of cleaning techniques used in different hospitals. Different techniques can impact patient care as well as the total cost of ownership for healthcare facilities. This educational session will help in efforts to prevent unnecessary damage and costly downtime.
