PRESENTERS: JON KOCUREK, DARTMOUTH-HITCHCOCK MEDICAL CENTER & DAN BRENNER, PARTSSOURCE

Jon Kocurek, Director of Clinical Engineering at Dartmouth-Hitchcock Medical Center, heads a team of 25 full time employees responsible for the maintenance of over 24,000 medical devices. As a veteran of the United States Marine Corps, Jon is well versed in system level troubleshooting, as well as having a keen understanding of how to balance productivity and quality coupled with sound management skills. As the leader of his department, he continually strives to find new and innovative ways to minimize cost and increase efficiencies in the pursuit of maximizing value for his organization.

Dan Brenner is the Strategic Program Director for PartsSource

WEBINAR AGENDA: Clinical Engineering departments are facing increasing pressure to track and provide comprehensive data on their asset spend. Join Jon and Dan as they take attendees through the process they used to identify, track, analyze, and evaluate key metrics to help transform the Dartmouth-Hitchcock Clinical Engineering department.

During this 60-minute session attendees will learn:

1. How to highlight the value of Clinical Engineering to their healthcare organizations.
2. Proven methods to track and update necessary data
3. How to an ongoing data measurement process off all assets under a clinical engineering department's care.
