Heidi Horn presents:

How The Covid-19 Pandemic Requires HTM, Facilities And IT To Collaborate More Than Ever – Now And Into The Future

Sponsored by:

Wednesday, May 6, 2020, 2:00pm ET

PRESENTER: Heidi Horn

Heidi Horn, Vice President, Global Enablement - Healthcare at Nuvolo. Heidi has deep roots in the healthcare industry with extensive involvement with the Association for the Advancement of Medical Instrumentation (AAMI), including currently serving as a member of the Board of Directors and chair-elect of AAMI's Technology Management Council (TMC). Horn recently received AAMI's HTM Leadership Award and is an inaugural member of the AAMI Fellow Program.

WEBINAR AGENDA: This 60 minute webinar will include a number of healthcare organizations across the country and members of HTM, Facilities and IT to share how they worked together to address Covid-19. This session will be moderated by Heidi Horn, Vice President, Global Enablement - Healthcare at Nuvolo. The convergence of HTM, Facilities and IT has helped hospitals move quickly to address the needs of their patients and hospital staff. Learn from these healthcare organizations how HTM, Facilities and IT came together to address this pandemic, and how they believe this will impact the way the departments collaborate in the future.

Our panelists will be:

HTM: Mike Busdicker – CHTM, FACHE – System Director, Clinical Engineering – Intermountain Health; Danielle Cowgill – Manager of Clinical Engineering – Stanford Children's Health; and William Mannes – National Director of Technical Services – Agiliti.

Facilities: Derek Watson – Director Planning, Design, & Construction at University Health Care System; John Ellis – System Director of Facilities – Intermountain Healthcare; and Bob Mulcahy – Vice President of Facilities – Hackensack Meridian Health.

IT: Joey Smith – Cybersecurity Specialist, Operational Technologies, at Cleveland Clinic.
